

From the Board: Rich Massimi; Vails Gate Cleaners, Joseph Dvash; Plaza Marquee, Stacey Lyle; Firthcliffe Technologies, Wynn Gold; Auric

Chamber Members and Guests: Christine Dorsey; Your Ideal Body, Doreen Keyer; Café Richiesto, Jim DeStefano; Access, Eileen Hartmann; Cromwell Manor, George Toth & Diana Orderwood; Alternative Counseling, Heather & Josh Wojehowski; Fresh, Andrew Ciccone, Luann Richards; Creative Gifts, Bernadette Montana; Brid's Closet, Elizabeth Moore & Eric Noll; The Elizabeth Collection, Dyanna & Matt Rettig; Bodies In Balance, Catherine Bale; Green Light Gallery, Kenn Brodmerkel; Cornwall Wines, Vanessa Hill; Walden Savings Bank, Bob Chivatton; Accurate Construction, Fred Lewis; Firthcliffe Technologies

Guest Speaker: Fred Lewis from Firthcliffe Technologies, Inc. spoke about 8 layers of security every computer should have

Old Business:

- Banners for Main St. and Hudson St. are all up
- Welcome to Cornwall signs are made and up
- All Graduates and West Point Graduate banners are up
- Rich was able to get someone to fix the clock on Main St. In the process of getting the new mechanism needed. Also need to fix the face and the glass of the clock.

New Business:

- Rich went to a meeting with the Cornwall Alliance where the Bridge Street Pocket Park was discussed. New York State first has to take Bridge St off as a drivable Street.
- Stacey handed out Fall Festival Sponsorship applications

Correspondence:

- Rich Massimi suggested donating $1,000 to Storm King Art Center. Wynn Gold made the motion and Eileen Hartmann Second the motion. Donation was approved by the members.

Thank you to the staff at Storm King Art Center for hosting our meeting and to Tina's Basket for a delicious dinner

Respectfully submitted,

Stacey Lyle

Co Secretary, GCCC